LAB 1: HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE OF PURE TONE AUDIOMETRY

The report should include findings of both pure tone audiometry. Pure tone audiometric findings must include the pure tone thresholds of your subject (250-8 KHz), pure tone averages, and diagnoses for both ears. In both the procedures you must justify the rationale for your diagnosis and the factors that were taken into consideration. Organize your report in terms of objective, equipment used, stimulus & subject, procedure, results, and discussion. Each group can submit one lab report.
