Question 1

Which of the following would you support adding to the PSC's list of demands for upcoming contract negotiations?

Frequency table

Choices	Absolute frequency	Relative frequency by choice	Relative frequency	Adjusted relative frequency
If a person begins teaching in an adjunct title after having previously taught in a graduate assistant title, services rendered in the graduate assistant title should count toward the requirements for receiving benefits in the adjunct title, including higher pay steps, PSC health insurance, and longer appointment periods.	209	34.6%	88.19%	89.7%
A graduate assistant, adjunct instructor, or other contingent worker should be deemed eligible for three weeks of paid, job-protected leave and nine weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave, for reasons as specified by the Family and Medical Leave Act. These include childbirth or adoption, personal illness, or care of an ill spouse, child, or parent.	205	33.94%	86.5%	87.98%
If a graduate assistant, adjunct instructor, or other contingent worker does not receive his or her pay on the date designated by the college for which he or she works, and it is determined to be the fault of the college, that worker should be entitled to either 1) a 100% advance on his or her pay or 2) an additional 20% upon receipt of his or her first paycheck, to be paid by the offending college.	190	31.46%	80.17%	81.55%
