

EVENT:

Mobilized by the recent felony conviction of a young woman for 'sexting' with her girlfriend, as well as research on criminalization of NYC youth, this conference conceptualizes "policing" widely. In panels and workshops, young people, activists, and scholars will provoke conversations at the nexus of law, technology, and constructions of racialized sexuality.

DATE: 12/1/2011

TIME: 2- 8 pm

Refreshments will be served.

SPACE: GRADUATE CENTER

365 Fifth Avenue (b/w 34 & 35th Sts)
Room 6304.01
New York, NY 10016

SPEAKERS:

Andrea Ritchie · Kate Kendell · Charisa Smith · Jessie Daniels · Gregory Donovan · Juanita Bell · Aimee Cox · Antjuanec Brown · Jolene Jenkins · Michael Hames-Garcia · Darnell Moore · Michelle Maher · Sarah Valentine · Streetwise and Safe · Black Light · Hetrick Martin · The Sakia Gunn High School

Growing up Policed: Surveilling Racialized Sexualities

SPONSORS:

Public Science Project · University of Oregon Women's Center · The Center for the Humanities – CUNY-GC. CUNY-GC Co-Sponsors: Africana Studies · Political Science · Doctor of Public Health Program · QUNY · Ph.D. Program in Social Welfare · Social/ Personality Psychology · Sociology Student Association · Women of Color Network Student Group · Women's Studies. Lewis & Clark College Co-sponsors: Gender Studies Department · Center for Community Engagement. University of Oregon Co-Sponsors: Lesbian · Gay · Bisexual and Transgender Concerns. Also: ADCO Foundation · SPARK Summit

activists youth constructions conference disciplinary transgender intersection neighborhoods interconnected question lesbian aware safe resistance documentary scholars surveilling sexuality legal communities engagement organizing allies sexting critique national queer academia